In addition to being a licensed clinical psychologist by the State of Illinois, I am also a Police Psychologist (member of Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police) and a Certified Senior Addictions Counselor. During my professional career I have performed disability evaluations for the Department of Human Services (Social Security), for residents of Walter Lawson Homes, and fitness for duty evaluations for police officers, among others. For the past two decades I have operated a private practice in Rockford, IL, providing testing, evaluation and psychotherapy services to adults and adolescents.

Being semi-retired I feel I can devote the time and professional expertise to an appointment to the 708 Board.
