Resolution 2009-0606

RESOLUTION FOR PURSUIT OF THE PREPARATION OF AN ALL HAZARD MITIGATION PLAN

WHEREAS; Ogle County, Illinois would like to obtain grant money through the Disaster Mitigation Act of 2000, as money is available for Planning and Projects that can reduce or eliminate the damages caused by natural and man-made hazards such as rain, snow, wind, ice storms, floods, drought and earthquakes; and

WHEREAS; Ogle County, Illinois must prepare an All Hazard Mitigation Plan before money can be released for projects; and

WHEREAS; this plan will include a listing of potential projects and activities that can help reduce the damages caused by these storms; and

WHEREAS; Ogle County will follow the next step in this process, which will be to prepare a grant application through Johnson, Depp & Quisenberry, an environmental and engineering consulting firm, for the preparation of this plan.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED; that the OGLE COUNTY BOARD does Hereby pass this resolution to pursue the preparation of an All Hazard Mitigation Plan.

Presented and Adopted by the Ogle County Board on June 16, 2009.
