WHITE ROCK TOWNSHIP
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Resolution # 1011

A RESOLUTION to the extent of permitted by law, stating our desired rejection of the requested Special Use Permit #3-17, allowing a commercial dog kennel with the importation and sale of puppies.

The Board of Trustees of White Rock Township met in a regular session on the 8th day of March, 2017, at the White Rock Town Hall with the following members present:

Tom Smith Superviser
Larry Blumeyer Trustee
Jim Milligan Trustee
Lorraine Hubbard Trustee
Luke Carmichael Trustee

Through a unanimous vote the above members moved for adoption the following Resolution:

At our regular meeting the Board Supervisor Smith presented a letter from the Ogle County Planning & Zoning Department stating the petition for a Special Use Permit, (#3-17), by Robert Decosta & Christie Hardt. The desired commercial business would be a commercial dog kennel, including dog breeding, import and sale of puppies, grooming and training.

The Board of Trustees of White Rock Township have reviewed this SUP and determined that this request should be denied. We do not feel this business can be viewed as essential, nor desirable to preserve and promote the general welfare of White Rock Township. The size of this proposed operation, quantity of animals, etc, is a concerning unknown, and with a vastly reduced State inspection process ensuring minimal if any regulation the future uncertainties vastly outweigh the proposed benefit. We have serious concerns this commercial endeavor will cause unreasonable detrimental property loss to other properties in the general area.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Board of Trustees of White Rock Township do not support Special Use Permit #3-17. Motion made by Lorraine Hubbard, seconded by Larry Blumeyer, role call was requested and the vote is as follows:
